Primary use and source of consented freshwater takes, 2013-14

Title
| Primary use and source of consented freshwater takes, 2013-14

Publisher
| New Zealand's Environment Reporting Series: The Ministry for the Environment and StatsNZ

Description
| Regional councils issue resource consents for the taking of fresh water for various purposes, including irrigation, drinking, hydroelectricity, and industry. Water can be taken from surface water or groundwater. The file provides the primary source and primary use of the water take for each consented take.
